
THE NETWORK FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW STUDENTS – INDIA

NILS India Business Law Review-Transfer of Copyright Agreement

In consideration of the NILS India Business Law Review reviewing and editing the work, the NILS India Business Law Review Transfer of Copyright Agreement (“ToC Agreement”) must be filled and signed by the Author(s) in original ink signatures. A scanned copy of the completed agreement is to be sent together with the manuscript.

The NILS India Business Law Review (“Journal”) and the undersigned Author(s) –

This agreement is entered into by the Journal and the Authors as follows:

Clause 1: Definitions

1. Work: Article submitted to this Journal for first publication entitled: “_____” on an exclusive basis.
2. Publication: The Journal publication in electronic form, of the work.
3. Open Access Service: This Journal’s service of providing readers unpaid access to the full text of the work on <http://www.nilsindia.org/archives.html>

Clause 2: Cession of Rights by the Authors

1. The Authors hereby grant and assign to this Journal the right to publish the work in electronic form in Issue __, Volume __ of this Journal respectively.
2. The Authors understand and fully endorse that this Journal can publish the work in pursuance of its Open Access Service.
3. The Authors, by way of signing this agreement, fully understand that their manuscript submission is a property of NILS India Business Law Review.
4. The Authors can reprint or republish the work, or any portion thereof, provided the Authors acknowledge the publication of work in this Journal as first publication in the following format:
“This article originally appeared in the NILS India Business Law Review, Issue __, Volume __ in the month of __ in the year 20__.”

Clause 3: Warrants by the Authors

THE NETWORK FOR INTERNATIONAL LAW STUDENTS – INDIA

1. The Authors represent and warrant that they are sole Authors of the work, that all Authors have participated in and agree with the content and conclusions of the work.
2. The Authors warrant the work is original, and does not infringe upon any copyright, trade mark or legal rights of any third party.
3. The Authors warrant that if copyrighted material is used in the work, appropriate credit has been given to the original Author or source of information.
4. The Authors warrant that the work, or any portion thereof, or any work based on substantially similar data not been published previously.
5. The Authors shall hold harmless and indemnify this Journal from any loss sustained by this Journal by reason of violation of any copyright, trademark or legal rights of any third party.
6. By signing this Agreement, the Authors guarantee that they have familiarized themselves and agree with its conditions.

Author's Name and Signature

Date